REVIEWS

If you are looking for a collection of animals, this would be a nice set, and the website offers quite a bit to enhance the educational experience, recommended Dr. Wright, TDmonthly's Psychologist Mom.

COMPANY PROFILE

Year established: 2005

Mission statement:

Caboodle! Toys LLC is built upon four principles to nurture a strong relationship with our collectors: OPTIMISM: We offer fun, non-violent collections that respect the beauty and charm of our world. EDUCATION: Our products, and the website built around them, teach young and old alike; education is a process and not a destination. INTEGRITY: We are committed to the full disclosure of the quantity and availability of our collections. PHILANTHROPY: We donate 5% of our net profits to respected non-profit institutions associated with each of our collections.

SAFETY PROFILE

How often are products tested?

All items were tested prior to manufacture to ensure compliance with ASTM standards. Testing procedures included an evaluation of mechanical hazards, flammability, and heavy metals contents. Our testing agency (Bureau Veritas) confirmed that the products comply with safety standards.

How is the overall safety of your toy evaluated?

Caboodle! Toys applies internal operating procedures designed to meet or exceed compliance with regulations and laws enforced by the CPSC and similar consumer safety agencies in other countries. Caboodle! Toys' products meet all requirements and standards of the ASTM F-963,
